

Davis & Associates Awarded Work on Lucas Oil Stadium

Davis & Associates, Inc. is one of the Indiana based firms working on the new Lucas Oil Stadium project. Hired on as a General Contractor, Davis' role was to provide the site's fencing. Corbitt and Sons, another local Indiana firm, assisted Davis with this job. "We're pleased that we were selected to perform this work," said Davis. The stadium and convention center projects provide firms such as mine the opportunity to display our skills and talents, increase our firm's capacity and that of other firms we have the chance to partner with."

Gary Davis is the founder and president of Davis & Associates, Inc., a Construction Management and General Construction firm with offices in Indianapolis, Indiana and Atlanta, Georgia.

In this role, he oversees daily operations of the company which employs approximately 75 people. Davis & Associates performs commercial construction services for clients such as the City of Indianapolis, Indianapolis Public Schools and Eli Lilly and Company.

Founded in 1992, Davis and Associates, Inc. is known throughout central Indiana as being a professional provider of exceptionally high quality craftsmanship. This reputation of excellent work, which has been recognized publicly by the City of Indianapolis and the Indianapolis Business Journal, has become the company's trademark, causing Davis & Associates to be in high demand and promoting its consistent growth. "Even after 14 years in business, we continue to market our firm in the construction arena," said Davis. "Success comes to those who diligently seek it. We believe in this philosophy wholeheartedly."

A native of Indianapolis, Gary is a graduate of Broad Ripple High School. He and his wife Renea are the proud parents of two daughters, Porscha and Latrese.
